The American Impressionist Society provides arts opportunities to artists working in the style of Impressionism. Each year AIS presents three juried exhibits along with numerous panel discussions, demonstrations, workshops, critiques, professional development, on location painting competitions, and educational programs. The exhibits and events are open to the public. AIS partners with galleries and arts organizations to present our National and Small Works Showcase each year.

AIS has grown to be one of the most respected national art organizations in the country, with over 1,800 members nationwide. Founded in 1998 by four Florida artists in honor of their mentor, William Schultz.
