

CONTENTS

- 3 Plein Air Heritage
- 10 Publisher's Letter: The Ultimate Plein Air Summer
- 12 Editor's Note: Summertime and the Painting's Easy
- 81 PleinAir Salon
- 87 PleinAir Events
- 114 Postcards From the Road

COVER IMAGE:

Fresh Juice

Mike Kowalski

Undated, watercolor, 10 x 12 in.

- 30 ARTWISE
Keep It Classy
By Tony Armendariz
- 32 PLEIN AIR PORTFOLIO
By the Seashore
- 38 DAN MONDLOCH
Just a Suggestion: One can paint tightly in watercolor or oil, but this Minnesota artist shows why embracing the paints' looser personalities pays dividends.
By Bob Bahr
- 46 SHAR COULSON
A Change of Heart: Artists often speak of "going with your gut," but for Shar Coulson it took a couple of pivotal paintings and a perilous health situation to convince her to trust her intuition.
By Stefanie Laufersweiler
- 54 JEANNE ROSIER SMITH
Informed Flexibility: Formulas will only get you so far in the painting process. Jeanne Rosier Smith demonstrates how artists must be adaptable — and listen to their inner voice for crucial inspiration.
By Bob Bahr

- 62 RICHARD BOYER
City Lights: Follow along as this Utah-based artist brings a fresh eye to the West Coast's City by the Bay.
By John A. Parks
- 70 MARK SHASHA
Liberty and the Sea: This Massachusetts oil painter has solid advice — both technical and philosophical — for painters intrigued by the seascape.
By Bob Bahr
- 76 THE ELEMENTS
Using Shadows to Your Advantage: Capturing the unique qualities of light in a scene is the motivation of every painter. But shadows have an important role to play, too. Learn how to make the most of the shadow shapes in your next painting.
By Mike Kowalski

PleinAir
MAGAZINE

DIGITAL SUBSCRIBERS:

Look for this icon to find additional images and stories.